Carol Mooney receives WSFA Class Act Reward

by Alicia Rodgers
& Ashley Rogers

Carol Mooney, kindergarten teacher at New Brockton Elementary School, was recently awarded the WSFA Class Act Award for her innovative teaching. She was presented this award by Bob Howell, anchor for Channel 12 News, on Wednesday, March 13. The Class Act Award is given to honor public school teachers for their innovation and creativity.

More than 150 teachers have been given this award in the past four years. WSFA broadcasts cover an approximately 105 mile radius from Montgomery. Applications are sent to schools in the Channel 12 viewing area and teachers are nominated by their schools. The applications are then sent to a selection committee and must pass a rigorous selection process.

Ms. Mooney has been teaching for 22 years. Her teaching career began in Evergreen where she taught fifth grade for three years. She continued her career in Goodman where she taught first grade for one year Childhood Education.

Ms. Mooney is an active member of Westside Baptist Church in Elba. Her life is filled with enjoyment from her children, two 3 1/2 year old toy poodles. She enjoys spending her time working outside. Her favorite activities are swimming, biking, and gardening.

When asked what she loved about teaching she stated, "It's not only the affection that the kids show me, it's the big change in the kids that I see. When they come to me, they come to learn and when they leave, they have learned."

During our interview with Ms. Mooney, we had the opportunity to ask a few students to comment to us about how they feel about their teacher. According to their responses, she is greatly appreciated.

Some of the kids said the following:

Jeffrey Miller said, "I like Ms. Mooney because she always does nice things for us. We cook stuff and eat it. I really like it when we read books together."

"I like Ms. Mooney because her mom brought us purple ice cream," said Robin Bundy.

We are not sure what purple ice cream is, but Robin seems to have enjoyed that day.

Mr. Charles Cole, principal at NBES says he is honored to have Ms. Mooney chosen for this award. He said, "She does a beautiful job and has an innovative and creative imagination. She makes learning enjoyable and exciting for the kids."

Mr. Cole also made an interesting comment about her teaching. He said that it was "fantastic." He is very proud of her and believes she deserves it.

Airings will be Monday, April 15 on the WSFA Channel 12 6:00 report.

Chief Driggers' reprimand matter of record

by Marvin McLWain - Editor

During the last meeting (March 4) of the New Brockton Town Council, council members, including Mayor Kathryn Holley, voted to disapprove the police chief's two-week suspension.

On Wednesday, Feb. 14, Mayor Holley relieved Police Chief Charles Driggers of his duties.

Immediately after, and during Driggers' suspension, there was no official or unofficial statement made or reasons given by the town's officials concerning the chief's suspension.

However, following the meeting on March 4, the council voted to draft a reprimand to Chief Driggers and make it a part of the official minutes.

The following is the ten-item reprimand presented to the chief and placed in the official minutes of the town.

1.) Property/evidence secured by the New Brockton Police Department will be processed in accordance with Code of Alabama, 1975 § 35-12-20 and 13a-11-83; Code of Ordinances, Town of New Brockton, the Town of New Brockton Police Department Standard Operating Procedure (SOP).

2.) Reports will be sent to the Alabama Criminal Justice Information Center monthly as required. A copy of all quarterly reports will be provided to the mayor, as stated in memorandum dated February 24, 1994, and April 12, 1994.

3.) You will not continue to allow officers to work off the clock per memorandum dated January 10, 1996.

4.) You will notify the mayor of any leave you plan to take, as well as any time you will be out of town or times you are tardy and not available for your shift.

5.) You will notify either the city clerk or the water clerk of your location during your shift. You will monitor your walkie/talkie/radio scanner during your shift and comply to the General Rules of Conduct approved by you on November 21, 1992, page 14.

6.) All members of the department are on duty a straight eight hour shift, you are permitted to suspend patrol for the purpose of having one meal during your tour of duty, not to exceed thirty minutes.

7.) You will refrain from the use of profanity or abusive language towards a fellow employee or member of the general public while performing official duties as a town employee. You will refrain from speaking critically or making derogatory or false accusations so as to discredit other employees, former employees, or supervisor.

8.) The Town of New Brockton encourages reporting by town employees of improper governmental actions taken by town officers or employees. You will not retaliate against any employee who makes such a disclosure in good faith.

9.) All training notification for the police department will be done by memo routed through each full-time employee first. They will have first chance at any and all training before part-time employees. Each employee will sign and date the memo when it is read. Copy of memo will be posted on the bulletin board.

Elba receives $258,375 FEMA grant

by Marvin McLWain - Editor

State and local EMA (Emergency Management Agency) officials were in Elba Monday not due to a disaster, but to bring good news.

Charles Webb, director of Coffee County's EMA, told those gathered in city hall, "If you would have been here six years ago today, you would have been underwater!"

"We are pleased to be here today to announce the near completion of another step in the efforts we are making to keep Elba from ever going underwater again," said Webb.

Through the Hazard Mitigation Grant Program, Lee Helms, Director of Alabama's EMA, presented the City of Elba with a check for $258,375.00.

The money will be used to install two high capacity stormwater pumps located inside the levee. These pumps will pump water, which accumulates inside the levee during initial rainfall during a storm, over the levee into the Fea River.

The grant program provides funding for projects that will eliminate or substantially reduce the potential loss and suffering from a natural disaster.

Flooding from torrential rains caused repetitive damage to homes and businesses in the southwest area of Elba. The approved project will eliminate flooding in this area.

It is estimated that the population in the area of the proposed project is 350 residents, 70 homes, 4 businesses and 1 church.

The mitigation initiative for the City of Elba represents the combined efforts of federal, state, and local entities. In addition to the FEMA funds, the city is pledging $86,125.00 in local funds, bringing the total project to $344,500.00.

Webb thanked those individuals and groups who worked toward, and were instrumental in, obtaining the grant.

Debbie Perry, State Hazard Mitigation officer, worked on the project from the very beginning.

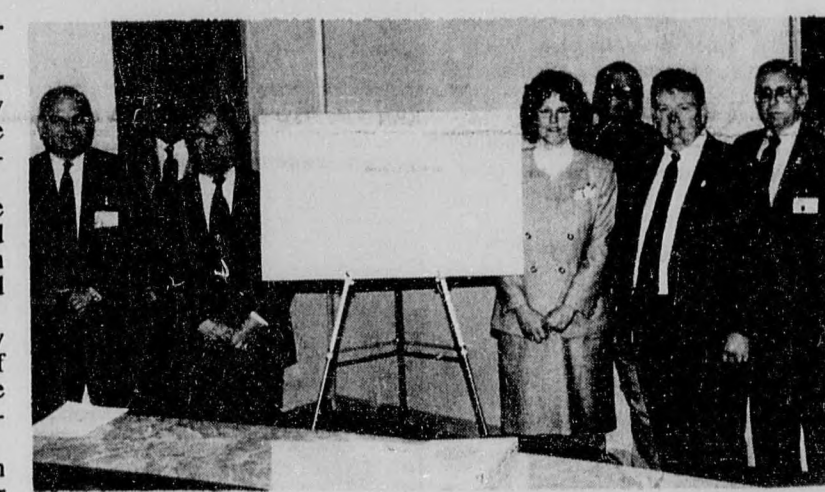

Some of the expenses the Band Boosters finance are: travel to football games, purchase of uniforms, maintenance on school-owned instruments, sheet music, band camp, and payments to the VICA Club for the field level concession stand.

The band operation is very expensive and without the help of the general public through their support of Band Day, the award winning program would not be possible.

All the merchants/businesses are being asked to get involved in this year's event by having a side-walk sale around the square on band day.

Those businesses located on the square may wish to use their store front. Other businesses (not located on the square) will be assigned spaces around the square to display their goods as well as to promote their business.

The day will be filled with fun,

Helms stated that mitigation is an important component of emergency management in that it reduces the need to respond to disasters by breaking the repetitive damage cycle.

The grant funds provided for this project are the result of the 1994 presidential disaster declaration for Tropical Storm Alberto.

He stated that the city will fund its share of the project with both cash and in-kind services such as manpower and the use of city machinery in installation of the pumping system.

Fredrick Hamilton, a planner with the Alabama Regional Planning and Development Commission, prepared the project application.

Webb also thanked the county commission for their support of EMA.

In accepting the check, Mayor Haywood expressed appreciation on behalf of the residents of Elba to all of those involved with the grant.

Mayor Haywood said that he hoped to have the pumps installed and working within six months.

He stated that the city will fund its share of the project with both cash and in-kind services such as manpower and the use of city machinery in installation of the pumping system.

Tiger Band Day '96 date set

by Marvin McLWain - Editor

The Elba High School Marching Band has scheduled Band Day '96 for April 13, 1996.

The annual event is used to raise money to be spent directly on the band program.

Some of the expenses the Band Boosters finance are: travel to football games, purchase of uniforms, maintenance on school-owned instruments, sheet music, band camp, and payments to the VICA Club for the field level concession stand.

The band operation is very expensive and without the help of the general public through their support of Band Day, the award winning program would not be possible.

All the merchants/businesses are being asked to get involved in this year's event by having a side-walk sale around the square on band day.

Those businesses located on the square may wish to use their store front. Other businesses (not located on the square) will be assigned spaces around the square to display their goods as well as to promote their business.

The day will be filled with fun, food, and activities for everyone. A bar-b-que will be held in the Senior Citizens Center with pick-up between the hours of 11:00 a.m. and 1:30 p.m.

Entertainment will be provided during the day for everyone to enjoy. Other activities planned include an auction, a dunking booth, moon walking, dart throwing, face painting, jail-for-bail, bingo, and many, many more.

The band day committee is asking everyone to join together in making this year's event one that will be remembered for a long time. This can be a time to visit with friends and neighbors, and possibly make new friends while supporting the band.

Members of the band work long and hard to make the people of Elba proud of them - this event gives everyone an opportunity to show these young people they, and their hard work, are appreciated.

Anyone wishing to volunteer their services, talents, and/or ideas are invited to do so.

REMEMBER, the day will be April 13, 1996 - around the square. Make plans now to be a part of this special day - YOU ARE NEEDED!

During this special day, the project of restoring the old Coffee County Jail as a museum will begin.

New pumps will be installed at the levee. These are to pump water over the levee and out of town when Pea River is up and the flap gates closed tightly by the pressure of the outside water. The late Bob Folsom advocated these pumps 20 years ago. Everyone scoffed at him. Now it is to be a reality. This former Elba mayor, some of his visions and ideas were apparently ahead of their time!

In Dunblane, Scotland, 16 five and six year old school children, their teacher and the shooter were all killed by gunfire last week. Reportedly the man who walked into the gym and opened fire was upset because of what he called a smear campaign on his reputation. Young boys in the community said they were scared of him. Apparently their fears were justified ... more justified than even their scared dreams.

We received a telephone call from Washington Tuesday afternoon. The caller wanted us to hold for a "personal recorded message from Newt Gingrich." This is not the first time phone calls carried recorded messages from some well known politician, nor is it the first time we refused to listen! If one of them calls personally, we will take the time to listen, whatever their message or however crazy their mission. However, to have some clerk turn on a tape recorder for us to hear ... that ain't our cup of tea. We tried to be nice, but were firm that there was no time available to hear recorded messages from politicians who have never heard of me.

It was a surprise to read that one of the big cigarette companies (Liggett) had agreed to settle health related lawsuits in several states. Now we read of an effort to split R. J. Reynolds from its parent company and maybe merge with Liggett. The whole thing is overly complicated for this simple mind, but somehow Reynolds would then share the settlement cost and maybe even avoid some lawsuit losses of its own. We haven't figured all that out and are further confused by reading in one report that in the Louisiana case at least, if the other companies being sued with their case, Liggett will not have to pay anything. Sounds like someone saw a way to win regardless of what happened on the battlefield.

Mahmoud Abdul-Rauf (who was Chris Jackson while growing up in Mississippi) is the Denver Nuggets basketball player who refused to stand for the national anthem. He makes two million a year PLAYING BALL and calls America a repressive society! Maybe he needs to go back to Mississippi and pick cotton for 364 pounds.

Colin Powell as the 1996 Republican vice president candidate ... it will never happen. Such a move would be great for Senator Dole's campaign, but we believe General Powell when he said it wasn't worth what a campaign would put his family through.

FROM THE HOUSE

Congressman

Clinton Pork Could Sabotage Final Budget Agreement

Here we go again. With the prospect of another federal government shutdown just days away, the President has chosen once more to ignore his commitment to present a balanced budget to Congress.

At the last minute, Mr. Clinton is preparing to order another federal government shutdown unless he gets $8 billion in new pork barrel programs added to the budget.

With Congress and the White House very close to achieving a true seven-year balanced budget, the President has pulled a fast one, reaching into his bag of tricks and pulling out another monkey wrench to sabotage any hope of progress.

If you've had any doubts about the President's sincerity to work for a balanced budget and keep faith with the American people, then surely his $8 billion pork wish list will confirm them.

Judge for yourself the President's sincerity. Here's what he now insists be added to the budget, or else he'll order another federal shutdown:

Pay White House chief of staff's wife $300 a Day — President Clinton wants $2 million more for the Office of Management and Enterprise, which employs White House Chief of Staff Leon Panetta's wife as a consultant for $300 a day. This program was created in 1994 to coordinate crime fighting efforts, but has yet to administer a single grant.

Aerobics class steps, and entertainment for school dances — The President is insisting upon an additional $26 million for his Safe and Drug Free Schools program. This program has given grants for non-drug related purposes which in the case of one Virginia school included hiring a disc jockey and guitarist for school dances; buying lumber to build steps for aerobics classes; and, to fund an expensive retreat for school administrators.

boondoggle — President Clinton is preparing to add an additional $470 million for the AmeriCorps "paid volunteer" national service program. Originally, supposed to cost $17,000 per "volunteer," the General Accounting Office recently reported the AmeriCorps program is costing the taxpayer $26,654 for each "volunteer" each year. A Baltimore AmeriCorps program even cost taxpayers, $50,000 for each participant.

Fund Hazel O'Leary's Department of Energy — The President wants an additional $75 million for energy conservation programs over and above the $553 million already approved. This is simply unbelievable given Secretary O'Leary's notorious record of wasting tens of millions of taxpayer dollars on foreign junkies and self promotional boondoggles.

Foreign rain measurements — The President also wants $8 million for something called the Global Learning and Observation to Benefit the Environment (GLOBE). This program spends taxpayer dollars with a goal of teaching K-12 students in foreign countries to measure rainwater.

Congressional Republicans will do everything we can to keep the government open and we'll make every effort to meet the President halfway on his requests.

But we will not be bullied into larding up the budget with his own pet programs. We will not borrow money from our children's future for this kind of wasteful spending.

In closing, I would like to thank Mr. Norris and Jack Herbert for the kindness and understanding they both showed my family on that horrible Thursday afternoon. Also, I would like to thank all the Coffee County Sheriff's Department for a job well done in catching these men and getting them off the streets. Now it is up to the judicial system to keep them off the streets and out of people's homes.

Dear Editor:

More than 400,000 people in Alabama receive food stamps, because their household incomes are less than 130% of the federal poverty level, and clearly lack the financial resources for an adequate diet. Based on national data, it is estimated that one half (51%) of these children are under age 18. The ability of the program to feed these and other needy persons could be undermined by welfare reform proposals that have been pending on Capitol Hill for the last year and recently revived by the National Governors' Association (NGA).

H.R. 4, the welfare bill that President Clinton vetoed in January, would have permitted some states to end the individual guarantee of food stamp benefits for eligible persons and convert the program into a lump sum block grant. Moreover, that bill, by restricting benefits and eligibility, would have cut food assistance by $32 billion over seven years. The NGA "deal" while not identical to H.R. 4's Food Stamp provisions, is similar in most major respects. As such, it is a bad deal for needy people in Alabama.

The magnitude of the food stamp cuts is enormous. On average, the annual amount of assistance lost would be over four times that being provided now by Second Harvest, the national food bank network and largest source of hunger relief. Nor could that or other charities be expected to fill the gap left by the lessening of federal assistance. Increased requests for food have been reported for months by soup kitchens, food bank operators, and others across the country.

Any notion that food stamp recipients can "tighten their belts" to absorb the budget cuts ignores desperate circumstances in which most recipients find themselves. The average household applying under the "non-emergency" part of the program has monthly income that amounts to only 59% of the poverty line—under $640 per month for a family of three. For those who apply under emergency provisions, the average income is even more meager—only 19% of the poverty line or less than $200 per month for the same three person family.

Food stamp benefits are essential for the survival of the poor. They are not a luxury, but a necessity. They are a lifeline for the hungry and the homeless. They are a lifeline for the hungry and the homeless.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor,

On December 25, 1995 our son was one of the happiest little boys in the world to wake up on Christmas to find what gifts he had received; however, all this was taken from him on March 7. Three men broke into our home. I speak of these criminals because the day they broke down my door, stole our belongings, invaded our privacy, vandalized our home, that day they committed an adult crime.

What separates a juvenile from an adult? How many crimes does someone have to commit to stand in front of our judicial system as an adult? Instead of a juvenile? How many people does it take to be hurt for something to be done? At some point the juvenile title needs to be taken away and "ADULT" needs to be stated.

These thieves took our son's Sega game system, knife collection, guns, and his heart. One of the guns that was stolen was my grandfather's. One in which he gave to my dad and in return gave it to my son when he turned nine. And by the way he is only 11 now. This gun is over 50 years old and is priceless to my son and I.

How many crimes does it take for action to be taken? Would it have taken me walking in on these men and them killing me or my children for them to be treated like any other adult criminal?

Two weeks ago, one of these same criminals was caught with drugs in school. Two weeks later, he was in my home stealing my belongings while I'm at work. I had a home that I could come to at the end of the day and where I felt safe and secure, but not anymore. This was a home my husband and I put our life savings into and it took 30 minutes for three useless thieves to destroy it. Days later, I have to spend money for a reason for my family. We have too many people on top of the rug that by right should be under it. Not only should we have a decent society, but we should also have an honest government because there is little or no love in the world. The government talks about getting rid of drugs, but they are not really trying to. If they would use as much machinery and machines, if they would use as many people in foreign lands. Sometimes it seems that there is little or no love in the church. The Apostle Paul said that we are not dealing with flesh and blood, but we are dealing with powers and principalities. Most of the causes of upheavals and revolutions in our social life today can be laid at the door of people who got to the top other than by climbing. Our world is infested with people in high places. Spencer Ryan speaks to Azalea Garden Club

Mr. Spencer Ryan, Executive Director of Alabama PALS (People Against a Littered State) was guest speaker for the Azalea Garden Club's March meeting held at Ella's Tea Room. Mr. Ryan gave a brief history of how Alabama PALS was formed and how effective the all-volunteer chapters have been state wide. Although most people are familiar with Alabama PALS from seeing the Adopt-A-Mile signs along state highways, this is only a part of what this organization does. They also sponsor the Adopt-A-Stream program and distribute pamphlets informing citizens about "Alabama Litter Laws" and "Recycling Facts". Also, each year Alabama PALS

sponsors a Litter Law Enforcement Conference for law enforcement and judges. A curriculum is also available for any school that wishes to participate. Mr. Ryan encouraged everyone to become active in helping to keep Alabama a beautiful and litter free state. If you or your organization are interested in participating, please call 1-800-ALA-PALS for more information.

First Assembly of God Youth participate in Via Delarosa '96 this past weekend

Via Delarosa '96 is a missions walk, but not your ordinary walk-a-thon. Saturday, March 16 and Sunday morning, March 17, Living Water Youth Ministries of Elba First Assembly of God Church walked approximately 25 miles to raise money for missions. The group began their walk Saturday morning in Enterprise and walked to Westside Baptist Church in Elba. After a night of rest, they continued Sunday morning by walking around the City of Elba and finished at their morning worship service at the First Assembly of God. The main difference in this walk is the fact that they carried an eight foot cross the entire way to symbolize the walk Jesus took to Calvary to die for our sins. Via Delarosa means "The way of suffering or the way of the cross." This youth group has decided to step out and take a stand for what they believe. In today's society you can see all sorts of groups protesting or marching for a particular cause, but it is very seldom that you see a group of young teens who will make such a big sac-rice just to follow after Jesus. These teens will be donating the money so others can hear about Jesus in less privileged countries.

First Assembly Of God Church

The Plan of Salvation

Have you ever stopped to think about how simple God made the Plan of Salvation? Have you ever considered how easy God made it for us to have faith? To start with in Romans 12:3 we are told that God has given to every man the measure of faith. Notice now, it does not say "a" measure of faith, but "the". Instilled within every human being is the measure, or ability to recognize there is a God and to know when a person is at the very bottom of life he can call out to God for help. How simple! God also proclaims in His word Revelation 22:17, "whoever will, let him take the water of life freely."

But, the question arises, how do we as mere humans get faith to believe further in God? We are told how in Romans 8:17, "So then faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the Word of God." Again, how simple! You receive faith from God to believe further in God by hearing about God.

Surely then it is easy for us to see that simply believing, or having faith in God is not all that is necessary for salvation. For we are told in James 2:19, "Thou believest that there is one God; thou doest well; the devils also believe and tremble." They tremble because they know that believing God and knowing who He is, is not sufficient to deliver them from the punishment that lies ahead. The same applies to mankind. God has made it simple to believe and He has made salvation simple. But to the person who knows there is a God and refuses to accept His Son Jesus is bound for an eternal hell. And we know hell was not intended for mankind, but was prepared for the devil and his angels (Matthew 25:41).

The God of All Creation states in Ephesians 2:8-9, "For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves; it is the gift of God: Not of works, lest any man should boast." Now couple that with Romans 10:9-10 and you see that you must confess Jesus and believe God raised Him up from the dead and you shall be saved. That my friends is more than just a passive faith in God. For verse 10 says, "For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness, and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation." How simple God has made it for all men of every nation, tribe, and tongue to have eternal life. Have you ever stopped to think about how simple God has made the Plan of Salvation? Why not help us spread the Word, for you see, "Faith comes by hearing and hearing by the Word of God." How simple!

Shown here are The Inspirations, a Southern-mountain style gospel-music group who will entertain Covington Electric Cooperative members at their 1996 membership meeting on Thursday, April 4, at the Andalusia Kiwanis Fair building. The entertainment program will begin at 5:00 p.m.

Kinston blanks Brockton 22-0

New Brockton quarterback Jason Allums (1) tries to avoid Kinston defender Jeremy Osborn (30) during action in Friday night's Coffee County Spring Football Jamboree.

New Brockton JV's post 8-0 wins over Kinston & Zion Chapel

The junior varsity teams from the three county schools took to the field Friday night in the Coffee County Spring Football Jamboree, and taking top honors were the New Brockton Junior Gamecocks.

The Gamecocks opened the jamboree with an 8-0 win over Kinston, then posted an 8-0 win over

Zion Chapel to claim the top spot in the event.

Zion Chapel and Kinston battled to a 0-0 deadlock in the third junior varsity match-up.

Following are highlights of all three eight-minute games:

NEW BROCKTON 8 KINSTON 0

The New Brockton Gamecocks drove 19 yards for a touchdown on their first possession following a Kinston fumble to claim an 8-0 win over the Bulldogs.

The Gamecocks' Josh Moore recovered a Bulldog fumble at the Kinston 19-yardline on the second play of the game to put New Brockton in business, and three plays later the Gamecocks were on the scoreboard.

Jason McKenzie gained 16 yards on three carries during the short touchdown march, and got the score on an 8-yard dash. McKenzie also notched the two-point conversion, and with 5:17 left in the game New Brockton was on top to stay with an 8-0 advantage.

Jason McKenzie gained 16 yards on three carries to lead the New Brockton offense, while Wallace McGary added 15 yards on 3 carries. Kellen Cole made 3 tackles to spark the Gamecock defense and Maurice Jones recovered two fumbles.

Bishop Edwards gained 10 yards on 1 carry and completed his only pass attempt for 15 yards to lead Kinston, while Ricky Morris gained 11 yards on 2 carries. Clint Cowen and Chad Tyler both made 2 tackles to lead the Bulldog defense.

ZION CHAPEL 0 KINSTON 0

The Kinston Bulldogs had a touchdown nullified by a penalty early in the game and never got back into the endzone as the Bulldogs and Zion Chapel Rebels battled to a 0-0 deadlock.

Kinston scored an apparent touchdown on its first play from scrimmage when Bishop Edwards broke loose on a 39-yard scamper.

However, a penalty nullified the early score, and the Bulldogs saw the scoring chance go by the board when the Rebels' Josh McWaters recovered a Bulldog fumble at the Zion Chapel 29-yardline.

Kinston threatened again on its second possession behind the running of Keats Reynolds, but was again slowed by a penalty, and at the final horn the scoreboard was still reading 0-0.

Walter Herron gained 14 yards on 6 carries to lead the Zion Chapel offense, while Marcus Taylor led the Rebel defense with 4 tackles. Keats Reynolds gained 23 yards on 3 carries and Bishop Edwards added 22 yards on 3 carries to spark the Kinston offense, while Michael Lee led the defense with 4 tackles.

the Bulldogs' lead was up to 14-0.

Kinston got the ball right back when Michael Farris recovered a Gamecock fumble on New Brockton's next play from scrimmage, and one play later the Bulldogs were once again celebrating a touchdown.

The touchdown came when Jason Williams lofted a pass high in the direction of Allen Bowdoin, and Bowdoin took the ball away from a Gamecock defender and fought his way into the endzone. Williams passed to Hawthorne for the two-point conversion, giving Kinston a 22-0 lead with 6:16 still left in the game.

New Brockton's offense began a drive of its own on its ensuing possession and behind the running of Jerry Haynes and Lee Flowers 35-yardline.

A fumble slowed the march; however, New Brockton failed to get into the endzone as Kinston held on to claim the impressive 22-0 win.

Jeremy Osborn gained 65 yards on 7 carries to lead the Kinston running attack, while Adam Osborn added 52 yards on 6 carries. Jason Williams hit on 6 of 8 passes for 88 yards and two touchdowns, with Allen Bowdoin pulling in 3 passes for 74 yards and both scores.

David Wise and Michael Farris both made 5 tackles to lead the Bulldog defense.

Jerry Haynes gained 42 yards on 9 carries to lead the New Brockton offense, while Lee Flowers made 5 tackles and Josh Winburn and Jason Allums both made 4 stops, apiece.

Bulldogs bite Rebels 12-0

The Kinston Bulldogs dodged an early Rebel bullet and then took command Friday night to defeat Zion Chapel 12-0 in the Coffee County Spring Football Jamboree.

Zion Chapel put the ball in play to open the two-quarter contest and behind the running of Andre Flowers

Flowers marched 54 yards in only six plays to reach a first down at the Kinston 16-yardline.

Flowers gained 52 yards on four carries to lead the Rebels downfield; however, a big defensive play by Kinston's Jeremy Osborn left Zion Chapel facing a third and 10, and the Rebels came up one yard short on fourth down, as Kinston took over on downs at its own 7-yardline.

The Kinston offense picked up where it had left off in its first outing of the night, as the Bulldogs marched 93 yards in only eight plays to light up the scoreboard!

Fullbacks Fred Edwards and Ronnie Lowman combined to gain 17 yards in three carries to get the Bulldogs out of the shadows of their own goalpost, and from there Jeremy Osborn took over, as the hard-running halfback ripped off runs of 36 and 17 yards to move Kinston to the Zion Chapel 23-yardline.

Two penalties against the Rebels added the Bulldog march, and the score came when Jeremy Osborn raced in from eight yards out. A two-point pass failed, but with 4:32 left in the first quarter Kinston was on top 6-0.

Kinston got the ball back on a Rebel punt and this time drove 78 yards in nine plays to increase its lead to 12-0.

Adam Osborn was the workhorse of the scoring drive as he gained 51 yards on four carries, while it was Jason Williams that got the touchdown when he bulled over from three yards out on a quarterback sneak. A two-point run failed, leaving the Bulldogs with a 12-0 lead with 11:26 still left in the game.

The Bulldogs regained possession at their own 12-yardline following another Zion Chapel punt, and this time headed back downfield on a 17 play drive that used up over seven minutes of the clock.

The drive was highlighted by the running of Ronnie Lowman and Ricky Morris, and the passing of Jason Williams. However, the Bulldogs couldn't overcome 45 yards in penalties during the long march, and gave the ball back to the Rebels at the Zion Chapel 28-yardline with 1:56 left on the clock.

Zion Chapel played "beat the clock" in an attempt to get on the scoreboard and moved quickly downfield behind the passing of Wade Parker to Billy Kelley, but time ran out with the Rebels at the Kinston 15-yardline, and the Bulldogs had the win 12-0.

Jeremy Osborn gained 75 yards

Rebs rip Gamecocks 20-14

The Zion Chapel Rebels scored on three straight possessions mid-way through the two quarter contest Friday night to grab a big lead and held on late to outscore the New Brockton Gamecocks 20-14 in the Coffee County Spring Football Jamboree.

New Brockton put the ball in play to begin the game and drove 70 yards in eight plays to grab the early lead.

County coaches see good and bad in jamboree play

The Coffee County Spring Football Jamboree was held last Friday night at New Brockton, and while Kinston claimed two wins, Zion Chapel posted a 1-1 mark, and New Brockton suffered two losses, the coaches from all three schools kept the jamboree in perspective while looking back at the results.

"We were pleased to get the two wins and especially pleased to record two shut-outs," said Kinston's Coach Mickey Jacobs. "We spent more time on defense this spring than offense because last season we allowed over 400 yards and 35 points per game. We spent a lot of time working on tackling and playing with intensity on defense, and it showed tonight."

"Our offense had a real good night moving the football both on the ground and in the air," added Jacobs, "and we would have been disappointed if we hadn't scored some points. Our offense is real simple and the players love it, and with a lot of players returning, we expected to have some success offensively."

"We had a lot of bright spots on both sides of the ball," said Jacobs, "but one player that really carried through for us was quarterback Jason Williams. He had to come in and fill the shoes of an All-State quarterback from a year ago, and showed himself, and everyone else, that he can lead the team and be a factor at the position."

"The wins were a result of hard work since the end of football last fall," Jacobs added, "but there is still a lot of hard work to do in the weight room, and what the players do from now until the beginning of fall practice will be more important than how we played in the jamboree."

"We found out tonight that we could be a pretty good football team," Collins stated in a post-game talk, "but we also lost by two touchdowns to a team in our own area. We need to improve in all areas between now and next fall, and that improvement needs to start tonight, not next week."

"We lost a lot of good football players from last season," said Collins in a later interview, "and we knew we would be rebuilding this spring. We have a young team with a lot of inexperienced players that are going to have to step forward. The players have the skills to be good, they are just young."

"We were glad to get a win in the jamboree," stated Coach Collins, "and found out that we have a linchpin in Chuckie Mitchell and two solid quarterbacks in Wade Parker and Andre Flowers. Some of the coaches from all three schools kept the jamboree in perspective while looking back at the results."

"You can never put too much emphasis on a jamboree," added Collins, "but it does feel pretty good that the last time we had on the pads this spring we were able to win a football game."

While the New Brockton Gamecocks were disappointed after suffering two losses in the jamboree, Coach Keith Thrasher kept the night's action in perspective and stated "We knew coming in that we still had some major areas to work on, and those areas were obvious in the games. We are just very inexperienced, young and weak, and we are going to have to get in the weight room and get a lot stronger before the season starts."

"Jerry Haynes ran the ball well and Jason Allums did a good job running the option," added Thrasher, "Our players have nothing to be ashamed of, we are just a very young team and will need to get total dedication from the players during the off-season to get ready."

Elba's Coach Lowery is pleased with Tiger effort

The Elba Tigers put their football equipment up for storage last week after concluding spring training with the annual Black & Gold intrasquad game, and according to Coach David Lowery it was a very good spring as the Tigers look ahead toward next season.

"I think spring training went real well," said Lowery. "We ended the spring with 46 players, and while we lost about ten players from the start of spring, we'll be in good shape if the 46 come back out next fall. We had a lot of sophomores and some young juniors, but if they will be dedicated and work hard during the summer, they'll get a chance to play a lot in the season."

"On offense, our plan going into the spring was just to work on some base plays and spend a lot of time working with the offensive line," added Lowery. "We had to put in a lot of time with the line-men; however, they responded well and got a lot done. Over on defense we're still not as big as we need to be, but we do have some experience and quickness, and after we make a couple of changes we should be sound. We still have some work to do in the secondary, but we have some good kids and we feel like we'll be okay."

Blue Plate Special sponsored by the C.G. Arts Alliance to be held at Elba High School Auditorium

Blue Plate Special will be performed Saturday, March 30, 1996 at the Elba High School Auditorium. It is being presented as part of the 1995-96 series of the Coffee County Arts Alliance.

Blue Plate Special is set in Della's Diner in Morning Glory Mountain, Tennessee and features an odd assortment of characters who drop in for coffee, pie, music, romance and adventure.

What is it about, you say? Well, if you must know: Della has just busted her grandson Joey out of reform school where he was serving a sentence for murdering Preacher Larry who died when his helicopter crashed into a filling station owned by ex-doctor Ricky Jim Robinson. Lawman Ronnie Frank Flaugher finds the boy holed up at the diner and tries to take him in, even though Joey is really his son. Maybe. In the meantime, Della's daughter Ramona (a country and western singer who just appeared on the "Tonight Show") sporting her new K-Mart outfit) shows up for a face-off with Connie Sue Day, a washed-up country music star who has just been released from prison where she did time for taking Della and her customers hostage several years ago. Got that?

Blue Plate Special will be performed at the Elba High School Auditorium on March 30, 1996 at 7:30 p.m. It is being performed by the Springer Theatre touring company of the State Theatre of Georgia. Tickets are available at the following places: West Gate Book and Gift, Plain 'N Fancy, The Framery in Enterprise; The Jewel Box in Elba; and ITR Travel Office at Fort Rucker.

10.) Violation of any of the above will constitute incarceration and result in the immediate suspension without pay until the next regular council meeting.

On Thursday, March 7, the gentlemen reprimand was signed by Mayor Holley, acknowledged by Chief Driggers (signature), and approved by Charles Cole (councilman/policemember). Joe Sawyer, the town's attorney, assisted in drafting the document.

Also, a list of ten complaints against the chief, which were considered factors in his suspension, were listed and attached to the reprimand. It was signed by Holley, Driggers, and Cole.

Most of the complaints listed dealt with organizational matters, record keeping, and equipment.

Councilman Cole commented, "It is my desire for the police department, the town and its residents to work in a spirit of harmony toward the common goal of making New Brockton a better place in which to live and work."

seum will provide a unique opportunity to display artifacts and historical documents pertaining to this area.

In addition, the jail will also provide needed space for the Elba Chamber of Commerce office.

Plans are for the upstairs large open room (cell) to be used as a meeting room for such functions as club meetings and other gatherings.

Additional plans are being considered for bricks to be placed in the entrance of the area surrounding the jail. Each sponsor will have his or her specified name engraved on the brick and also maintained in a commemorative book.

According to Barbara Hudson, Executive Director of the Elba Chamber of Commerce, great things are already being planned by several businesses and community groups to make this a very special day.

This project is being established to give local businesses, civic groups, clubs, and individuals the opportunity to help restore this historical building and possibly help develop a city park through a community program.

Further details for this special Community Sponsor Day will be released as plans develop.

Anyone wishing to make suggestions or share ideas on making this a successful event should call the chamber office at 897-3125.

It is also requested that anyone having pictures, artifacts, history, or just old memories of the jail to share them with the chamber.

Youth need to know America's Black Heritage, a continuing strength in our society.

Business/Professional Prior to 1865, Negro business in America was circumscribed by slavery in the South and by Negro population scarcity and lack of business organization knowledge in the North. They did, however, exist, falling roughly into two categories: one group composed of free Negroes who were able to accumulate sufficient capital to set up businesses, and the other, those slaves who through thrift, industry, native intelligence and sometimes the liberal paternalism of their masters, managed to develop small businesses.

Robert S. Brown created New York's Black Economic Research Center, which provides technical assistance to Black economic development programs.

Leroy Callender, one of the nation's foremost consulting engineers, has designed buildings for the U.S. Army in Korea, worked on a nuclear power plant for the Consolidated Edison Company, and completed the first phase design for York College, a projected university in New York City. He formed his own firm in 1969.

Reduced rates being offered to farmers served by APC

Jan Cook stated at the March monthly committee meeting of the Alabama Public Service Commission that many farmers served by Alabama Power Company would be receiving reduced rates as of March 4, 1996. Farmers adopting this new rate may stand to reduce their present rates by 3-21% depending on their usage. Customers, however, may keep their present plan if they so choose.

"I have worked for months with our staff, Alabama Power, as well as other interested groups, to establish a rate that would help the farmers of this state; and at the same time, not increase the rates of other customers. I'm pleased to say that it is these new rates do," Ms. Cook stated. Ms. Cook further stated: "I wish that this rate would be in effect for all Alabama farmers, but the commission does not regulate the Rural Electric Cooperatives nor the Tennessee Valley Authority (TVA)."

Poultry farmers, cattlemen, peanut growers, dairymen, nurseries, catfish growers among others may utilize these new rates. These farmers are presently using the LPS rates plan and would be changed to the ASL reduced rate.

Peanut dryers and cotton gin operators are also benefiting. Their reduced rate will be called the new PG rate and applies only to peanut dryers and cotton gins.

Ms. Cook stated, "I was raised in a rural farming part of our state, and I realize with government programs in jeopardy and the increased operating costs the difficulty farmers are experiencing, I want to help."

Farmers interested in these new reduced rates must notify Alabama Power Company or they may contact Jan Cook at (334) 242-5203 for further information.
